

ARRESTS MADE.

Several Newark Women Accused of Shop Lifting.

Three Taken to Prison this Afternoon—Story of Sensational Affair in Which All of Newark's Dry Goods Firms are Interested—Developments of the Day.

This afternoon warrants were issued for the arrest of Mrs. Laura Harris, Mrs. Ella Haughey and Mrs. Rosa White.

The affidavits against Mrs. Harris and Mrs. White were subscribed by Miss Mae Smith and Officer Hiram Jacobs filed affidavits against Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Haughey. State warrants were issued and were served on the defendants by Officers Jacobs, Ziegler and Rinehart.

The affidavit against Mrs. Laura Harris and Ella Haughey, filed by Officer Jacobs, charges the women with receiving two pieces of dress goods, valued at $1.70, three pieces of silk $5, belonging to H. H. Griggs & Co.; one piece of table linen $1.50, one piece of embroidery $2.50, belonging to John J. Carroll; one fur scarf $5, belonging to J. W. Hansberger; and two pieces India linen $6, belonging to Meyer Bros. & Co., all of the value of $22.70.

In receiving these goods, the women are deemed guilty of the crime of larceny, the affidavits charging that they knew said goods were stolen.

The other affidavit is signed by Mae Smith, a clerk in Meyer Bros. & Co., and charges Laura Harris and Rosa White, with stealing from Meyer Bros. & Co., one bolt of silk valued at $49.18, and 10 yards of ribbon valued at $2.50, and 5 yards of ribbon valued at 90 cents, total value $42.58. This affidavit charges grand larceny.

The complainants in the cases are the dry goods firms of H. H. Griggs & Co., J. W. Hansberger, Meyer Bros. & Co., and John J. Carroll. All of the firms have for some time been missing articles from their stores, and it was finally found that they were the victims of an organized gang of female shop lifters. Their method of working was exposed Monday afternoon when they were caught.

According to the allegations made, shortly after noon Monday four women went into the store of Meyer Bros. & Co. Mrs. White and Mrs. Harris stationed themselves near the silk counter, while Mrs. Haughey and Mrs. Hattie Frederick stood some distance away and tried to keep the attention of the clerks. One of these, however, noticed that the two women at the silk counter were making suspicious movements, and kept a watch on them. Mrs. White was soon seen to pick up a bolt of silk and conceal it under her cape, Mrs. Harris putting herself between Mrs. White and the clerks. All of the women wore loose capes, which were admirably adapted to the hiding of large bundles, being apparently made with this end in view.

The head clerk of the silk department, Miss Jennie Green was at once notified of Mrs. White's action, and walking up to her said:

"What have you under your cape?"

Mrs. White denied having anything, and folded her arms, pulling the cape close around her shoulders and breast. Miss Green pulled it open and found the bolt of silk, containing 40 yards, and two rolls of ribbon, Mrs. White protested her innocence, expressing great surprise that the articles were found on her and saying she did not know how they got there. Upon her protestations she was allowed to go, the other women accompanying her.

The proprietors of the store were at once notified and a conference with attorneys and members of other firms was held. It was decided to watch the women closely, and Mrs. Frederick was first put under surveillance. With her husband, Arthur Frederick, a painter and paper hanger, and their twelve year old daughter, she occupies rooms on the second floor of the Rider block on West Main street. In the same building there lives Prosecuting Attorney Thomas W. Phillips, an uncle of Arthur Frederick, and who has his office in the Opera House block, just across the street.

Shortly after nightfall Officer Jacobs was called on the case, saw Mrs. Frederick, carrying a large bundle, go to Philipps' office, open the door with a latch key and enter the room. After a few minutes she came out without the bundle. He hunted up the Prosecuting Attorney and under a pretext got him to go to the office. Lying on a table therein was a pile of silks, dress goods, linens, etc., which the officer seized and took to the police station. Philipps soon followed to the station, carrying another lot of goods, which he said he had recovered from "all over the town."

The merchants mentioned above each identified some of the goods as coming from his store.

Mr. Philipps made efforts to settle the matter, but after several conferences with the attorneys in the case, Messrs. F. M. Black, Gil C. Daugherty, and Kibler & Kibler, the merchants decided that the thing to do was to prosecute the women both as a punitive measure and one that would tend to deter others, who either were members of this gang, or maybe have been carrying on depredations on their own account.

While each merchant feels that he would like to show mercy to a woman, at the same time all of them realize that this case seems to be one that deserves prompt and effectual treatment.

In connection with the shoplifting, a prominent attorney of this city said to the Advocate Thursday afternoon:

"I was standing on the north side of the square during the evening talking to a friend when one of the women whose names have been connected with the case, passed along, walking hurriedly down the street towards the Tubbs house block. I noticed that a large piece of goods hung from her cloak and at first was under the impression that she was losing a part of her wearing apparel, but in a moment realized my mistake. I called to her that she was 'losing something,' but she paid no attention. Thinking she did not hear me, I stepped out towards her and repeated the information, whereupon she gave a backward glance and seemed amazed to see about five yards of black silk goods trailing along the ground. With a mumbled utterance which I could not understand she grabbed up the goods and proceeded on her way."

Several times Wednesday there were conferences between the lawyers and the women in the case and the "sweating" process was used with no little advantage. Some statements are said to have been made to materially assist the prosecution.

The arrest of the three women was accomplished quietly about 12:30 o'clock p. m. The officers armed with the warrants went to the apartments of Mrs. Frederick in the Rider block, and there found Mrs. White and Mrs. Haughey. They submitted quietly and a message was sent for Mrs. Harris to tell her to come to the rooms. She came unsuspectingly enough and was placed under arrest, and the three were then taken to the city prison and locked up.

An Advocate reporter called at the prison but could not gain admission to the prisoners.

Mrs. White, who is the wife of "Ras" White, a driver for the Consumers Brewery, living at 24 South Fourth street, was more inclined to talk, saying that she would turn State's evidence, and tell all she knew.

There was no warrant issued for the Frederick woman, but it is said, that the three women arrested implicate her.

SCHWAB

Offered to Resign as President of the Steel Trust and Matter Isn't Fully Settled.

New York Jan. 30.—The Commercial announces today that Chas. M. Schwab, recently cabled from Monte Carlo to J. P. Morgan an offer to resign as president of the United States Steel Trust, providing Mr. Morgan and his associates deemed it expedient or necessary. This was the result, the paper said, of Schwab's reported sensational gambling at Monte Carlo and also Mr. Morgan's sharp cablegrams of criticism to Schwab. The paper says: "It is understood that Mr. Morgan and his associates have decided upon no definite action. It is intimated vaguely that although Mr. Schwab is likely to continue as president of the United Steel Trust during the calendar year, his position is not considered altogether permanent."

IS THE VERDICT AGAINST JIM HOWARD

IMPLICATED IN THE MURDER OF GOV. GOEBEL. JURYMEN WERE UNANIMOUS On the First Ballot, Differing Only on Degree of the Penalty—Were Out Two Hours.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 30.—At 11:35 o'clock today the jury in the case of Jim Howard returned a verdict of guilty against the prisoner and fixed his punishment at life imprisonment. He was implicated in the Gov. Goebel murder.

The jury is said to have voted unanimously on a verdict of guilt. On the question of punishment, seven voted on the first ballot for life imprisonment and five for hanging. On subsequent ballots five for the death penalty voted with those favoring a life sentence. Howard looked pleased when the verdict was announced. His attorneys will tomorrow enter a motion for a new trial. The jury was out two hours and ten minutes. This is his second trial.

Carnegie Institute.

Washington, Jan. 30.—After the second day's session of trustees of the Carnegie Institution had been called to order by Abram S. Hewitt today, Wm. W. Morrow, of California, offered a resolution acknowledging the $10,000,000 gift of Mr. Carnegie. The following executive committee was chosen: Abram S. Hewitt, Dr. D. C. Gilman, Elihu Root, Dr. J. S. Billings, Carroll D. Wright, Dr. S. Weir Mitchell and Dr. Chas. D. Walcott.

HIGHWAYMAN

Stopped the Wrong Man—Latter's Dogs Jumped in and Tore the Fellow to Pieces.

Tipton, Ind., Jan. 30.—Last night as Burkey Wyandotte, a wealthy farmer, was driving home, a highwayman stopped his horses, and drawing a revolver, demanded money. Wyandotte had three large dogs in the wagon and turned them loose on the robber, who before he could defend himself, was thrown down and the clothing torn from his body. Wyandotte then called his dogs off and drove home. He returned a few hours later with a searching party and found the body of the robber almost torn to pieces. His identity is unknown.

FATHER

SEARCHED FIVE YEARS FOR HIS BOY.

WHO WAS FOUND IN A HOME AT TOLEDO, OHIO.

THERE WAS A PITIFUL SCENE

When the Child Was Taken From Those Who Loved Him by His Unknown Father.

Toledo, O., January 30.—Thomas Edwards is a blind man. He resides on Wisconsin street with his wife. The wife is a sort of guardian over her husband, and her eyes, although nearly gone, do duty for two people. The two Edwards, husband and wife, are singers. Together they have traveled all over the country, and their ability as singers, coupled with their misfortunes, has brought them to a state of comparative prosperity.

Five years ago, Mrs. Fred Lavo, nee Millie O'Brien, brought a pretty child 10 months old to the home of blind Mr. Edwards and told him that his father was in the penitentiary and the mother was dead. The people were childless and took a fancy to the little shaver, and have since lavished their affection upon it.

Yesterday two men stepped into the Edwards home. One introduced himself as Constable Stump, and in turn introduced his companion as Fred Lavo, a well to do farmer, of Iowa. By the table stood a curly-headed little youngster, just home from kindergarten, the baby of five years ago.

"Little boy, I am your father," said Mr. Lavo.

"What?" gasped the blind man.

"No, No! It cannot be," said Mrs. Edwards as she hastened to the side of the child.

Mr. Lavo then explained that for five years he had been searching for the boy. Lavo, who is a personal friend of Constable Stump, enlisted the services of the Constable long before he left home in search of the boy. Stump traced the little chap through his career from the time he disappeared until he was finally intrusted to the care of Thomas Edwards and his wife.

After Lavo went West five years ago his wife took their two children and gave them away. She gave Freddy to Mr. and Mrs. Edwards.

The next heard from Mrs. Lavo was a short time ago. She is employed as floor woman for the Kenosha (Wis.) Sterling Bicycle Lamp Co.

Then followed a scene absolutely pitiful. The blind man felt the hopes and desires of years disappear in an instant. The handsome wife of Edwards, whose chief care has been the welfare of the adopted boy, could scarcely realize the terrible blow, which, falling without warning, deprived two lonely people of the one thing they both cherished. The boy was confronted by two "papas," and was sorely perplexed. He had known his blind papa since he could remember, and here was a stranger who came in and called him son.

Mrs. Edwards went over to the boy. The whole scene was most affecting. But the end had to come, and Lavo quietly took out a roll of $100 and laid it on the table.

He told the Edwardses that if they ever were in need the telegraph would bring them money from his Iowa home. If they wanted to see the little fellow whom they had reared from childhood Lavo promised to send them their fare from this city to Iowa.

Stump asked the little chap if he knew the stranger. The boy answered that he did not, but that if he was his father he would willingly go with him.

Then the only father and mother the boy had known since his birth kissed him for the last time, and the lad with his new-found father came away from the Edwards home, leaving two heart-broken people to mourn over the child they had lost.

Freddy Edwards, as he has been known to every one, has been carefully educated. It was the intention of the parents to train him for a musical career.

Some weeks ago Edwards wrote to the mother in Kenosha asking her if she would sign the papers giving the

UNIONS

OF MT. VERNON MAY COME TO NEWARK

TO ASSIST IN THE LABOR DAY CELEBRATION.

THE INVITATION IS CONSIDERED, Having Been Formally Extended and Will Be Decided in Two Weeks.

The Meeting.

Mt. Vernon, O., Jan. 30.—Mt. Vernon may have no celebration of Labor Day this year. The matter has not been fully decided upon, but the Central Labor Union, which is composed of delegates from all the local unions, is now considering the matter of uniting with the unions in Newark and holding the celebration in that city.

It is said that a shortage of funds figures as one reason for the desire on the part of some to allow the celebration to go elsewhere this year.

However, the matter has not been finally decided upon and the celebration may yet be held here. At Mansfield last year it was voted by the labor unions to hold the celebration in Mt. Vernon in 1902.

The Central Labor Union met in the Labor Hall Tuesday evening with a large attendance on the part of the delegates. The meeting was called to order by President Baker, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Four delegates from the Newark Trades' council were present. They extended an invitation to the Mt. Vernon unions to go to Newark on Labor Day to assist in the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of that city. They reported that during the week beginning with Labor Day the Elks of that city will hold a carnival and that a splendid time is anticipated. The local union was not ready to take final action on the matter and the proposal was taken under consideration until the next meeting, when some decision will be reached. In the meantime the matter will be taken to the different unions by the delegates.

A member of the Metal Polishers' union of Dayton, O., was present. He made a splendid address, congratulating the members upon the large turnout and upon the enthusiasm they displayed in their work.

After transacting other business the meeting was adjourned for two weeks.

Rumors have been started about the city during the week that the celebration would go to Newark unless a boycott declared by saloonists upon certain business men was lifted. The members of the Labor union state that they have nothing to do with

MURDERERS

With Possible Assistance of the Warden's Wife, Escaped.

After Shooting One Guard and Throwing Another Over the Banisters—Desperadoes Then Donned Citizens' Clothing and Walked to Freedom this Morning.

Pittsburg, Jan. 30.—Between four and five o'clock this morning Ed and Jack Biddle, in the Allegheny County Jail under sentence of death for the murder on the 12th of April last of Greecyman Kahney, of the Thirty-second ward, escaped from the jail reaching freedom through the street door of the warden's residence. From what can be learned, it seems that one of the Biddle boys feigned illness, bringing several of the guards to their haugcon cells. The guards in attending to their wants, threw off the steel rod which bolted both doors. One of the guards went to the hospital for medicine. The Biddles made a desperate rush from their cells, grappling with the remaining three guards thrust them behind the cell doors and shot the bolts in place. When the guard returned from the hospital the overpowered him, taking keys and revolver and then threw him over a 16-foot railing into the corridor below. This guard was very badly injured. The Biddles then went to the jail of ice, opening the doors as they went. There they shot the guard in charge of the office, inflicting a dangerous wound and with keys taken from him opened a locker, arrayed themselves in citizens' clothing and then walked out to freedom through the halls and doors in the Warden's residence. There is no clue to their whereabouts. Their escape was not discovered until 7 o'clock today when the day guard reported for duty and the desperadoes had a long start on the pursuing officers.

LATER DETAILS.

Later information says the escape was the most daring ever attempted in this city and its successful execution proves the desperate character of the two condemned murderers. The escape was made by sawing the bars of their cells. How they got the tool with which to do this is not known. They, in some manner were armed as they had a revolver with which they shot one of the guards. Night guard on duty were James McGarry and Reynolds. McGarry's duties were to look after the front office and at intervals make a trip through the corridors to see that all was right during the hours from 10 o'clock at night until 7 o'clock in the morning. Guard Reynolds was stationed just inside the general interior of the jail.

How or just at what hour the Biddles escaped is not definitely known. When Deputy Warden Marshall reported for duty this morning he found the doors open. Guard McGarry was lying inside on the lower floor with his skull fractured and in an unconscious condition. Guard Reynolds was also lying unconscious not far from his post with a bullet hole in his hip and badly beaten about the head. He was unconscious. The keys to the jail were missing as the Biddles had taken these with them.

McGarry had been attacked and beaten on the head with the butt end of a revolver. He had been picked up bodily and thrown over a railing and received additional injuries in his terrible fall. His skull was fractured. It is thought that his injuries will prove fatal.

Guard Reynolds was also sent to the hospital. His injuries consisted of a severe lacerated wound and ugly cuts in his head. It is not known what the extent of his injuries are, but they are serious. Nothing has yet been obtained from either guards as to the escape as they were handled very roughly and may both die, and were evidently overpowered so quickly that they could not offer resistance.

Deputy Warden Marshall, when he found affairs in a state of confusion was dumbfounded. He sounded a warning and notified Warden Peter J. Soffel, Jr., who lives with his family in a port to his office in the jail. The jail officials then turned their attention to finding out the details of the escape and how the daring deed had been accomplished. It was found that the bars of the cells occupied by the murderers had been sawed and that they had escaped from their cells by pushing out these bars. The question as to how the murderers came to have evolvers was a mystery but it is believed when Guard McGarry was making the rounds of the corridors he was attacked, battered into unconsciousness, relieved of his keys and revolver and thrown over the railing. With his revolver the attack was quickly made upon Guard Reynolds who was hot and robbed of his keys and the Biddles made the dash.

The date of their execution had been fixed for February 25 and 27.

The escape is causing all kinds of ad talk. It has a political end. Warden Peter Soffel who has charge of the jail dared to oppose the local machine which made a deal with Governor Stone under the new ripper law which state leaders interfered in city affairs. Soffel came out in support of his brother in the independent council fight. Now it is alleged, the escape was fixed up to discredit Soffel's management of the jail. How ondemned murderers could get out without a job is inconceivable. They had three iron doors to pass. Besides, they were armed and together. The two guards who were wounded in the fight, it is needless to say, were not party to the supposed game.

It is now reported that Mrs. Soffel, wife of County Jail Warden Peter J. Soffel, Jr., assisted materially in the escape of the Biddles this morning, and that she has gone with them. All admittance to the jail is denied reporters.

Warden Soffel made a startling statement at 1 o'clock this morning: "I believe my wife furnished the weapons to the Biddles and assisted them in making their escape. This is an awful thing but I am only telling the whole truth. She was not in bed when I was awakened this morning, and I have not seen her since. She is gone—God knows where. I said that I would lay everything bare, and am doing it. This is the worst blow of all, but it is true. I did not suspect her and hence was off my guard, but he is gone and the suspicion of assisting in the delivery by furnishing the weapons rests on her."

Nothing further could be learned. Mrs. Soffel is gone—so are the Biddles. Whether they went together or alone an only be conjectured. Her disappearance at this time may even be a coincidence, although even Warden Soffel doubts this. The Warden is rushed with sorrow and despair. The escape of the Biddle boys was enough out the mysterious disappearance of his wife fills his cup of sorrow to the rim.

The County Commissioners met in consultation this afternoon and offered a reward of $5,000 for the capture of Ed and Jack Biddle, dead or alive.

TEN THOUSAND IN A RIOT TODAY.

BUDAPEST, Jan. 30.—A riot of workmen occurred here today. Ten thousand of them attacked parliament to give emphasis to the anti-government campaign of Socialist leader Vaysonyi. The windows of the buildings were smashed and the proceedings of the chamber were interrupted. The mounted police were called out and the officers charged the big crowd, slashing them with their swords. The ambulances carried away 86 wounded persons to the hospitals and homes.

THE GIGANTIC STEEL TRUST.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The Steel Trust makes public some remarkable facts today. For his work in underwriting the syndicate, Morgan and colleagues got 123 millions. Surplus on the day balance was struck was $175,000,000. Net earnings for the first nine months were $54,000,000. Carnegie and his close personal friends got $193,000,000. The Trust says that as the present prices yielded a fair return, prices were not advanced though they could have been secured.

IMPORTANT INVENTION.

Since Franklin first harnessed the lightning the world has marvelled at the progress of electrical invention. The world practically revolves now by electricity. No discovery has done more to revolutionize business than has the discovery of the use of electricity. The limit is not yet reached. This era of invention with the aid of electricity is only just begun.

The latest invention is that of a signal light which its inventor claims will penetrate the heaviest fog. If this be true it is an invaluable one. A San Francisco inventor claims he has invented an electric search light which will penetrate a dense fog for a distance of from one-third to half a mile, the light appearing very bright at the latter distance. He has used powerful lenses in perfecting his invention and the light reflected is green. The green light has been found far more effective than the white or even the red. Will not this invention avert disaster both on land and sea? If this light can be seen at a distance of even a quarter of a mile through a dense fog at sea, its use will make oceanic collisions a thing of the past. The lights may also be used on locomotives, thus averting disasters on railroads, which fogs often cause. In New York and San Francisco there is much agitation over this invention, and a practical test made with it proves all that the inventor has claimed for it.

The British in South Africa the other day executed the Boer commandant, Colonel Scheepers, on a charge that he had flogged a white man and murdered seven Kaffirs. The defense was that these were legitimate acts of war. Senator Teller endeavored to get a resolution before the Senate that a resolution before the Senate with the hope of saving the life of the Boer officer, but he was hastily executed before the resolution was introduced. This execution would not have taken place, it is conceded, had Botha or DeWitt kept some of their prisoners among the British officers on hand for retaliation. If they should now capture a British colonel they may deem themselves justified in executing him by way of retaliation.

A bill has been introduced in Congress by Mr. Lacy, Republican, of Iowa, to print 9,000 facsimile copies of the "Morals of Jesus of Nazareth," prepared by Thomas Jefferson. This book was known as Thomas Jefferson's bible, and is now in the National museum. Unlike the rest of his library, purchased by Congress years ago, it has never been printed. Mr. Jefferson prepared it in a reverent spirit, during several years of intermittent application to the task. He strips the Bible of all its miracles and leaves nothing but pure morals, that he might compare the same with the morals of Confucius and of other Pagan philosophers.

HANGING FOR BURGLARY.

Four men convicted of burglary in North Carolina have been sentenced to death by the trial court, and the Supreme court has affirmed the validity of the sentence. Thus we shall soon have the spectacle of four men being hanged for burglary, and not murder. A newspaper comment runs in this way: "The State is the only one in the Union which makes a capital crime of the offense in question, and public sentiment there seems to be strongly arrayed on the side of the law, which rests upon the assumption that a man who engages in burglary is at heart a murderer and intends at the outset to take life if necessary to prevent discovery or capture." And is not that the correct presumption? The armed burglar who enters a house at night has murder in his heart and mind as intently as in a majority of the reported homicidal cases in which death results from sudden anger and personal conflict. If there is any virtue in hanging to repress crime, the night-time, armed burglar should suffer the extreme penalty of the law.

DUTCH NOTE

Offered Good Offices to Bring About Peace—Burgler Leader Not Behind It However.

London, Jan. 30.—It is published here on authority that the Dutch note to Great Britain, after rehearsing the earnest concern of that government at the opening of hostilities in South Africa, offered its good offices in bringing them to a close. To this end Holland asked whether Great Britain would be willing to permit a Dutch commission to proceed to South Africa, to enlighten the Boer leaders in the field as to the real position of affairs, and more especially, since it is understood that there is not the slightest chance of intervention on the part of any European power, and that the prolongation of hostilities is useless. The Dutch government expressly announces in this note that it possesses no authorization whatsoever from the Boer leaders, either in Europe or South Africa, to take this suggested step, but that it appeals to Great Britain on the ground of common humanity, for military permission for the Dutch commission to accomplish its mission of peace.

Dr. Leyds' Denial.

Paris, Jan. 30.—The Patrie publishes an interview with Dr. Leyds, who denies that the representatives of the South African republics in Europe asked for the mediation of Holland in South African affairs, or authorized Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch premier, to make propositions for peace. "There can be no conditions for the British government to examine," says Dr. Leyds. "There is only one condition: the British government knows it sufficiently well and need not examine it further. From the intentional ambiguity of Mr. Balfour's statement in the house of commons, it is evident that this is mere maneuver."

Germany Out of It.

Berlin, Jan. 30.—The statement emanating from Paris that the powers were privy to the proposals of Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch premier, to Great Britain on the subject of peace in South Africa, and approved this step, beforehand, is denied without reservation here, insofar as the German government is concerned. The German cabinet is maintaining an absolute neutral attitude, and will not concern itself with anything that has the appearance of meddling in this matter.

Schley's Appeal.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Admiral Schley's appeal, delivered to the president a week ago, has been made public by the navy department. The admiral asks, in effect, that the president, as commander-in-chief of the army and navy, review the findings of the court of inquiry, that he set aside the finding of the majority and that he sustain the finding of Admiral Dewey. The applicant asks this on three grounds, in each case the appeal being based on the finding of Admiral Dewey. Attached to the appeal are elaborate argument and resume of testimony concerning the question of command during the battle of Santiago. Admiral Schley requests that this question, in order that justice may be done and for the good of the naval service, be now settled, finally and forever.

Marconi Talks at Sea.

Falmouth, England, Jan. 30.—Marconi began his wireless communication with the Lizard light when the steamer Philadelphia was 120 miles distant, and continued his messages for several hours. The first message to be transmitted to him was a welcoming and congratulatory communication from The Daily Express of London. To this Marconi responded with his thanks, and added a request to send some American news. A series of news items of interest to Mr. Richard Croker and the other passengers on board the Philadelphia was then sent, and subsequently The Daily Express held the first wireless telegraph interview with the inventor. The latter said he intended to establish wireless telegraph stations in England and elsewhere for transatlantic communication.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Washington, Jan. 30.—The majority and minority reports on the anti-oleomargarine bill were filed in the house. The majority report is concurred in by nearly all the members of the agricultural committee. It summarizes the extent of the injury claimed to be done to the butter and dairy interests by the sale of manufactured products colored to imitate the genuine article. The minority urge a substitute which, they say, is designed not to prevent the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine, but to prevent it from being fraudulently sold for butter.

Canton Pays Tribute.

Canton, O., Jan. 30.—Cantonians paid loving tribute to the late President McKinley in a memorial meeting at the tabernacle Wednesday night, which was participated in by people in all walks of life to the number that overtaxed the big enclosure, where many of the same people had so often listened to words of their old friend and neighbor. The chief orator of the meeting was Hon. William Dudley Foulke of Indiana, the warm personal friend of the late president, recently selected by President Roosevelt for membership on the civil service commission. A short address was also delivered by Hon. George H. Laughlin of Wheeling, W. Va.

St. Louis Delegation at Columbus.

Columbus, Jan. 30.—A delegation of St. Louis men has arrived here, representing the Ohio society of St. Louis. The mission of the delegation is to urge the proper representation of the state at the Louisiana Purchase exposition. A joint session of the legislature was held Wednesday night, before which the St. Louisians urged legislators to appropriate a liberal sum for a large representation at the exposition, on the ground not only of state pride but of business policy.

The Snowstorm.

Cincinnati, Jan. 30.—Although the snowstorm was general throughout the state of Ohio, yet no great damage has been reported thus far. The telegraph and telephone companies in this city are doing business as usual, but the telegraph companies report much damage to the wires throughout Kentucky. The snow has ceased falling, and the indications are for warmer weather.

In Front of a Train.

Jackson, O., Jan. 30.—Harvey Rice, a well known citizen of this county, was run over and instantly killed by a local freight. Two engines were working on a double track, and the supposition is that the unfortunate man stepped in front of one and was caught by the local, which was coming from the opposite direction.

Close Call.

East Liverpool, O., Jan. 30.—By the narrow margin of two feet a car passing along the hill 200 feet above the river missed being buried by an avalanche of dirt and rocks, which crushed the rear vestibule and covered the track to a depth of 50 feet. The car was on the Wellsville electric line and had 15 passengers.

Crushed by the Cars.

Athens, O., Jan. 30.—Elmer Martin, 19, was struck and instantly killed at Chaucery by a passenger train. Two trains were passing on a double track, and, becoming confused, he stepped in front of the engine. He lives at Beaumont and was the son of Owen Martin.

Presidential Appointment.

Washington, Jan. 30.—It was announced that President Roosevelt had decided upon reappointing C. M. Barrett as surveyor of the port of Louisville, Ky., and Webster Flannigan as collector of internal revenue of the Third Texas collection district. Webster Street, who was chief justice of the supreme court of Arizona, will not, it is said, serve another term. He will be succeeded by Edward Kent, now assistant United States attorney in Colorado. Mr. Kent is a son of the late ex-Governor Kent of Maine. Judge Street's term will expire in March.

Dynamite Exploded.

Halifax, Jan. 30.—An explosion of dynamite at the Marsh colliery, Thorsbourn, Picton county, killed three men and demolished the structure. The dead are: J. W. Sutherland, resident manager; Walker Sutherland, underground foreman; John Wilkes, overground foreman. The cause of the explosion is not known. The marsh mine is the property of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal company.

Union Men Locked Out.

Kansas City, Jan. 30.—About 100 bench hands employed by six leading firms here were locked out because of an attempt of the industrial council to form a union of bread-wagon drivers. Hereafter, the bakers say, they will employ nonunion men.

POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Newark.

Because it's evidence in Newark. It's from a citizen, perhaps a neighbor.

Investigation will confirm it.

Mr. C. D. Myers, 30 South Front st., freight conductor, B. & O. says: "I had a pain across the small of my back for four or five years. It was such a constant ache that I had little chance to forget it. I went to Crayton's drug store and got Doan's Kidney Pills. This was not the first medicine I had used in trying to get rid of my trouble, but I can say that it is the first that ever gave me quick and lasting relief for the backache entirely disappeared."

CONGRESS

Another Warm Debate in the Senate War Revenue Reduction—Permanent Census Bill.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The senate had under discussion the question whether a censorship of press dispatches exists in Manila. The debate for a time was very spirited. The secretary of war was quoted as saying that no press censorship now existed in the Philippines, and a letter from General Gretey, chief signal officer of the army, was presented by Mr. Beveridge of Indiana making the statement officially that there was no censorship of press dispatches, and that "the press is entirely free." It was contended by the opposition that a press censorship did exist in the Philippines, and that every news dispatch filed with the cable company was filed with the military authorities. That it was maintained, constituted a virtual censorship. Mr. Cullom, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, delivered an extended and carefully prepared speech on the history of the reciprocity negotiations.

War Revenue Reduction.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee held a private conference and decided to frame a bill for the reduction of war revenue taxes before proceeding further with the subject of Cuban reciprocity. No draft of a bill has been prepared by the Republican members, but it is pretty fully understood that the majority is prepared to favor a measure effecting very large reductions, amounting practically to a repeal of the entire war taxes. The restriction of recent hearings to beer and tea led to the belief that reductions might be confined to these two articles, but the sentiment of the majority now appears to be favorable to a much larger reduction.

In the House.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Mr. Hopkins (Ill.) reported the permanent census bill. A request to make the oleomargarine bill a special order for next Monday was objected to on the Democratic side.

Trial of Lawyer Patrick.

New York, Jan. 30.—Captain James A. Baker again occupied the witness chair at the trial of Albert T. Patrick for the murder of William Marsh Rice. The captain admitted that he had expressed no opinion as to the genuineness of the signatures of various papers bearing Rice's name and which he now calls forgeries, until he had obtained the opinion of handwriting experts. He furthermore admitted that Patrick, before his arrest, had told him he desired a full investigation of his relations with the aged millionaire. The prosecution has been endeavoring to prove that Patrick and Rice never met.

Relative of Pope Leo.

Omaha, Jan. 30.—Sister Mary Constance Bentivoglio, mother superior of the Omaha convent of St. Clare and relative of Pop Leo, died at the monastery of pneumonia after two weeks' illness. Sixty-four years ago the sister was born in the castle of St. Angelo at Rome, while her father was governor of the Italian capital. She was a descendant of the famous house of Bentivoglio, and one of her brothers, Count Bentivoglio, is prominent among Italian noblemen of today.

Schley Resolutions.

Denver, Jan. 30.—The legislature adopted resolutions containing a splendid tribute to the great services and pure life of President McKinley, deploring the manner of his death and appealing to all legislative bodies to stamp out anarchy. The house unanimously adopted resolutions commending Admiral Schley and condemning the majority report of the naval board of inquiry in his case.

Murderer's Body Found.

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 30.—The body of George Rakes was found near a public highway in Wayne county, 20 miles south of here. Rakes severed his wife's head with a hatchet in this city Sunday last and escaped. A posse was in pursuit, and the supposition is that he died from exposure. The body was covered with snow.

Turf Winners.

At New Orleans—Prince Biazee, Small Jack, Dagmar, Wilton, Circus, Stranger. At Charleston, S. C.—Albion, Clifton, Roy, Jim W., Diva, Freigate. At San Francisco—Sham, Bird, Commodore, Foster, Quiet, Corrigan, Red Wolf, Aloha II.

Permanent Census Bureau.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The bill for a permanent census bureau reported by the house committee on census provides that the present bureau organization shall continue until July 1, 1902, when it shall be superseded by the permanent bureau, the personnel of which shall consist of a director at $5,000, three statisticians at $2,500 and 12 clerks at various salaries. All persons in the bureau at the date of passage of the act are placed under civil service rules.

Danish Cession Treaty.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The treaty with the government of Denmark for the cession of the West Indian islands owned by that country to the United States received its first attention at the hands of the senate committee on foreign relations. The greater part of the committee's time was given to this question, but the committee adjourned without taking action.

That is the result of a course of treatment with Scott's Emulsion. We have special reference to persons with weak lungs and sensitive throats.

Scott's Emulsion does some things better than others. This is one of them. It has a peculiar action on the throat and lungs which gives them strength and makes them tough.

That's how Scott's Emulsion drives out coughs, colds and bronchitis. It keeps them out, too.

AMUSEMENTS

"PEACEFUL VALLEY" TONIGHT'S ATTRACTION.

West's Big Minstrel Jubilee Announced for Saturday Night and Little Minister Next Week.

This evening the management of the Auditorium will offer its patrons "Peaceful Valley," with Alden Bass as the stellar feature. The play is one of those thoroughly satisfying kind of dramas telling a story of homely everyday people, and yet one full of interest from the first act to the fall of the final curtain. It is a play of pure sentiment, clever diction, bright and pungent wit and intensely human scenes and situations, all framed in picturesque settings, for the action of the major portion of it takes place in the hills of New England. Alden Bass does not play Hosea Howe, so one critic has said—he is the part, even to the shoddy things with which his typical shoes are laced, for Mr. Bass is not only an artist in the portrayal of character, but in dress and makeup also. There is something about the acting of Mr. Bass in his quiet scenes to make his efforts telling, and those who see his Hosea Howe believe in the honesty of the New England boy from the first. Not so much from the lines he is given to speak, but from the convincing manner in which the character is played. It is a relief in these days of stage trash to be permitted to sit in judgment on a play of this kind, with no straining for effect, or clap-trap to jar your nerves or make you wish you had stayed home or had been out of town. "Peaceful Valley" is a play that appeals to all classes and kinds of people, and its admirers will be found among the boys in the gallery as well as those of better condition, able to sit in the higher priced seats below stairs. Mr. Bass has given on the play an entirely new and elaborate scenic dress this season. The cast in support will include among others, Miss Polly Stockwell, Miss Lonnie Sydmet, Miss Susie A. Rogers, Miss Effie Gillette, Mr. William Belfort, Mr. Bert McCann, James R. Dickson, Carl Anthony and John C. Carlyle.

FINDS WAY TO LIVE LONG.

The startling announcement of a discovery that will surely lengthen life is made by editor O. H. Downey, of Chubbuck, Ind. "I wish to state," he writes, "that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is the most reliable remedy that I have ever known for Coughs, Colds and Grip. It's invaluable to people with weak lungs. Having this wonderful medicine no one need dread Pneumonia or Consumption. Its relief is instant and cure certain." Hall's drug store guarantees every 50c and $1.00 bottle, and give trial bottles free.

BREWERIES

Affected by Enforcing Prohibitory Law in N. H.—Trade of Merchants Falling Off.

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 30.—It is two weeks since the order to close all saloons in this city went into effect, and since that time the sale of liquor has been so rigidly prohibited that only one arrest for drunkenness has been made here.

The enforcement of the prohibitory law throughout the state has affected the breweries here, and last night one company laid off part of its men and announced that it would not run nights for a time. All the other breweries were also affected, to the amount of nearly 3000 barrels a month.

The merchants, also, are beginning to feel the effects of the closing, as trade from the surrounding towns has fallen off perceptibly since the order went into effect. Trading which was formerly done in this city is now done across the line in Massachusetts. The law is so strictly enforced here that the physicians are unable to get prescriptions calling for liquor or alcohol filled at the druggists' and the spirits have to be ordered from out of the state.

THE MURRY HOUSE.

In reply to "An Old Citizen" in regard to the Murry House, would say that Mr. Murry was the first hotel man to occupy the building that now stands on the north side of the square. James Atcherley of this city, George W. Evans, of Granville, Siglers of Columbus, or M. L. Wilson of New York, ought to be able to give you information as they were connected with the two dry goods stores that occupied the building at the time.

Hundreds of Newark People Volunteer Evidence that Dispel Doubt.

The columns of this newspaper are day by day publishing fresh evidence from Newark people which establishes more fully the great reputation of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—the manner in which they take hold of the run down and debilitated is so prompt, strength and energy it so quickly picked up by their use, home evidence is plentiful.

Mr. J. F. Bullock of No. 153 Second street, south, Newark, Ohio, says: "I can honestly recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to those who are nervous, debilitated and sleepless. In these conditions I found the medicine would quiet and steady the nerves, give general strength and restful sleep, consequently I like them."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase's Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

MARION HOME

MR. AND MRS. HAND, FORMERLY OF NEWARK, IN CHARGE.

Is Getting Started—Children Taken to the Institution From the Delaware, O., Home.

(Marion Mirror.)

The infirm directors accompanied by Mr. E. S. Hand, superintendent of the Waddell Children's home, and Dr. J. B. Taylor, left this morning for Delaware where they will take 12 children from the Delaware home and bring them to Marion where they will be placed in the Waddell home.

These children were sent to the Delaware home from this county at various times during the past several years and now that the Waddell home is ready for occupancy, they are being brought back.

Work at the home is still in progress and the building is being furnished as rapidly as possible so that the entire building will be ready for use within a short time. As fast as rooms are gotten ready they are being taken up by children of this county who have no other homes.

THE LATE MRS. BARBER.

Margaret D. Thorn Barber, one of the oldest and most highly respected Christian women of Licking county, died at her home in New Way, Jan. 21, 1902, aged 72 years, one month and ten days. She was born at Old Town, Trumbull county, December 11, 1829. At an early age she came to Licking county with the family of her father, the late James Thorn, and was married to James R. Barber on March 6, 1856. To this union were born three children, two of whom survive her, one son died at the age of 18 years, on Nov. 2, 1881. All of her wedded life she had lived in New Way, and for 40 years of that time just across the way from the church where the funeral services were held. She was a faithful wife and devoted mother.

COLLEGE

Fraternity Boys Hid the Books When They Were Demanded in the Wickham-Coyner Case.

Delaware, O., Jan. 30.—The first sensation in the Wickham-Coyner election case, in which Wickham is endeavoring to establish that Coyner was illegally elected as Circuit Judge in the Sixth Judicial District, developed when subpoenas were issued summoning the Presidents of all the local college fraternity chapters to appear in Court with their constitution, by-laws and permanent roll.

Three of the orders were served by Sheriff Schaffner, but before any of the Presidents could reach the fraternity halls other members had preceded them, and all records are now among the hidden treasures. This fact was reported to the Court, but as it is a question of law whether they can compel the "frats" to produce documents they have sworn to keep from the public eye, there has been no further action taken. The "frat" men are up in arms and unanimously declare that they will fight the case to a finish carrying it to the Supreme Court if necessary.

They are being backed up by the officials of the general fraternities, who have wired that under no circumstances are the records to be produced in Court. The fraternities in the Ohio Wesleyan University are Beta Theta Phi, Phi Kappa Psi, Delta Tau Delta, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Chi. Wickham contends that it was the student vote that elected Coyner and that the students had no right to vote.

No Argument Needed.

Every Sufferer from Catarrh, Knows that Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Douches Do Not Cure.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything, at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no opium, opiate or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief, and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure."

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty cent box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

Great Locomotive.

The largest and most powerful locomotive in the world, which was built at Schenectady by the American Locomotive Company, is on its way from the Mohawk Valley to the West where it will haul heavy freight on the Santa Fe road, says the Schenectady, N. Y. correspondent of the Baltimore, Md., Sun.

From the end of the tender to the point of the pilot it measures 70 feet. Two engines of 989's type, if they could be suspended in the air one above the other, would reach a height nearly as high as Niagara. The top of the stunted smoke stack is 16 feet above the ties.

On a level track 989 could haul a train a mile and a half long, carrying the harvest of 10,000 acres of wheat. Ten massive driving wheels, nearly as high as a man and so heavily counterbalanced that they appear almost solid, grip 20 feet of track. On these 10 drivers, which gave the name of deapod to this type of engine, a weight of 232,000 pounds is carried.

Its firebox, made of carbon steel tested to a tensile strength of 60,000 pounds to the square inch, is about as big as the bed chamber of a New York flat. Its two thick shells are held together by nearly 2000 tough staybolts each one capable of lifting a yard engine without breaking.

The grate area is 60 square feet, which is unapproached in any other locomotive ever built.

The heating surface of the Santa Fe's great freighter measures nearly double that of the English record-breaker, or exactly 4,582 square feet. Between the tube sheets of 989's boiler measures 18½ feet, and in the big barrel are maced flues 2¼ inches in diameter. Placed end to end, these flues would make a pipe a mile and a half long.

In 989 the massive low pressure cylinders are next to the forward drivers. The smaller high pressure cylinders are directly ahead, a construction which makes one piston rod do for each pair of cylinders.

The cylinders of 989 are the greatest castings ever made in the Schenectady shops. Their gross weight in the molds was 25,340 pounds. The De Witt Clinton, tender and all, did not weigh as much as one of these castings.

Miss Nellie Stone is spending the week with Miss Caroline Slabaugh, on West Main street.

T. M. White and wife and D. P. Burch and wife attended quarterly meeting at Jacksonstown Sunday, and were pleasantly entertained by H. A. House and sister, Miss Adda.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Price is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Inyard who left Hebron forty years ago, to reside in southwestern Kansas, returned here last week to hunt up his old friends. However, he found but very few remaining here, death having claimed almost all of his old associates. At Kirkersville he found a dear friend, Mr. John Harris, who formerly lived in Hebron. Mr. Harris is lying very ill with little hope of recovery, and Mr. Inyard expects to stay with him as long as he possibly can.

Dr. Maccabee of Columbus will locate here next week. His office will be in the Chism block on High street.

Mrs. Joshua Brown is entertaining her sister from Columbus this week.

The Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Hulda Haster Thursday afternoon.

Henry Jones is able to be out this week and is getting accustomed to being called papa. The mother and daughter are both getting along nicely.

Miss Cordelia Sharer was very unfortunate last Saturday and met with quite an accident, from which she is suffering considerably. She was standing on a box trying to adjust the stove pipe when the box tipped and Miss Sharer and the stove pipe had a tumble on the floor. However, the "soot" came out winner, for it covered all, but the stove pipe received the benediction and smiled.

Mr. Eli House of Big Rapids, Mich., and Miss Bess Chapman of Plain City are visiting their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan House on Cedar Hill.

J. W. Bartholow was in Columbus Monday. He has applied to the State Canal commission for a lease on a lot bought here of the I. O. O. F. After it was surveyed it was found that about 18 feet belonged to the canal bank, which would make the lot too small for building purposes.

Owing to the icy streets last week there was quite a number of downfalls, but the worst fall happened at T. M. White's Tuesday night, when about two yards square of the plastering fell from their sitting room ceiling, making a terrible crash. Mitt thought it was D. P. Burch rolling out of bed, so did not think anything of it until he saw the room next morning.

The gang of workmen on the electric road who have been boarding at the Armory, were transferred to the other end of the road with headquarters at Reynoldsburg, last Sunday. The steam engine with worktrain ran as far west as Doney's Station. When passing through Reynoldsburg the crowd that had gathered there to see the first cars pass through their village, was equal to a county fair. One old gentleman remarked, while gazing at the cars, that he had lived there for forty years, and that was the first engine he ever saw. The road is progressing nicely now, and it will not be long until they will be running to Columbus. Supt. Davis and family will now have their headquarters at Columbus. Engineer Freye and wife have many friends at Hebron that regret very much to see them leave. Electric cars are now running on schedule time between Kirkersville and Newark.

ENGINEER WHITE

Who Was Killed While Making His First Run on a Passenger Train.
Funeral Today.

The accidental death of Mr. Wm. White, B. & O. engineer, was published in yesterday's Advocate but the following from the Zanesville Courier, gives some further details of the accident:

The career of a promising young railroad man was cut short Tuesday afternoon when William White of the B. & O. was killed at Mineral, east of Cambridge. White was in the cab of his engine when death came.

White's engine and another were "backing" train 104. White's machine occupied a position in the rear of the other.

As the train was pulling into Mineral, White turned and was looking back, when he was struck in the back of the head by the mail catcher which projects from the station. Death must have been instantaneous.

The fireman did not discover the accident until he turned and saw White's limp body hanging from the window of the cab. A hasty examination showed that life was extinct and the fireman at once notified the crew of the leading engine.

White's engine was cut out at Campbell's and the train proceeded with the single locomotive. The body of the dead engineer was shipped to his home in Newark. When the undertaker examined it it was found that the blow from the mail catcher had crushed the rear of the skull to a pulp.

White was a very popular man, and the news of his death was received here with sincere sorrow. Only about an hour before he met his death he passed through this city and nodded his customary greeting to his friends at the depot.

White was born and reared in McCuneville and had been running on the B. & O. for about five years. Starting from the bottom up he had worked himself forward to the position of engineer, and the trip Tuesday which terminated his career so tragically for him was his first in charge of a passenger engine.

The funeral took place in Newark this afternoon.

PLOT

ENDED IN DEATH FOR TWO BURGLARS

THEIR PALS WERE SPIES WHO INFORMED OFFICERS

WHEN HOUSE WAS ENTERED.

Sheriff and Deputy Marshal Hurt—A Thrilling Story of a Battle at Gallipolis Last Night.

Gallipolis, O., Jan. 30.—A desperate attempt to rob Mrs. Mary Priestley, an aged and wealthy widow of this city, last night, had a sanguinary climax. Two notorious burglars and cracksmen are dead, Deputy Sheriff W. S. Manning is seriously wounded and Marshal Peter Finsterwald of Athens, is perhaps mortally wounded. The battle in which the robbers were killed and the countless officers wounded occurred at the commodious home of Mrs. Priestley on Second avenue, about 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Priestley is about 58 years old, and her wealth is estimated at $100,000. She lives a quiet life, with a maid and nephew as her only companions. In the basement of her home is a large safe, which used to be the receptacle for large sums. Several attempts to rob her have been thwarted and the widow has been in peril.

Several weeks ago Sheriff Murphy of Athens county, was notified by a friend that two vicious men who were suspected of being desperate crooks had taken Bob Sweet into their confidence and were trying to persuade him to aid them in a big job. Sweet knew the men, but was averse to taking any part in pilfering.

Sheriff Murphy sent word to Sweet to call at his office and he made an exposition of the plot to the officer, in the presence of Marshal Peter Finsterwald, who was in league with the Sheriff to ensnare the criminals. Sweet was persuaded to wear a false mask and under the pretense of an accomplice to familiarize himself with the plans to commit the robbery. He did not consent, however, until the officers had promised to protect him. Sweet met with the gang that has terrorized this section of the state and succeeded in ingratiating himself in the heart of the criminals.

After considerable persuasion he got Weldon Kyle, a blacksmith of Athens to consent to help him by identifying himself with the gang.

The robbers did not suspect Sweet or Kyle of being disloyal and had unshaken faith in their fidelity. All the time the conspiracy was in progress Sheriff Murphy and Marshal Finsterwald were kept acquainted with the developments in the plot to murder and rob Mrs. Priestley. Everything was planned and Sweet and Kyle were sent to Gallipolis Tuesday by the unsuspecting robbers with a kit of tools to see that there were no obstacles to prevent them from committing the crime.

The plan was to enter the house while Mrs. Priestley's nephew was absent, gag the widow, or kill her if she made a cry. After being gagged she was to be burned with a heated poker until she revealed the whereabouts of her money. Sheriff Murphy called up Sheriff McDaniel Tuesday afternoon and told him of the plot and informed him that silence must be observed until he reached here, when they would arrange a reception for the crooks.

The Sheriff from Athens and Marshal Finsterwald arrived at Gallipolis, went to the office of Sheriff McDaniel and the officers completed their plans to frustrate the crime and entrap the criminals. As prearranged Harvey Williams and Lysle, the two notorious robbers came here on the 5:25 K. & M. train. They went to the fair and there met Sweet and Kyle.

Heavily armed they started for the home of Mrs. Priestley, reaching there at 7 o'clock. Sheriff McDaniel of this county, and Sheriff Murphy of Athens county, secreted themselves in the coal house at the Priestley home and Marshal Finsterwald, ex-Marshall Kuhn, Deputy Sheriff Manning and Officer Edward Martin were concealed in the house. Mrs. Priestley was sent upstairs and her nephew was dressed up in female attire to represent the widow. A knock came at the side door and young Priestley hobbled to the door in his female attire. The robbers rushed in and began firing. Their confederates remained in the rear masked so the officers could not identify them, and a fusillade followed. The officers appearing on the scene Sweet and Kyle joined the officers, and a battle in which the robbers were slain and two officers wounded followed. The criminals made a fierce fight, and were riddled with bullets before they sank to the floor dead. Williams was shot in the hall, where he was with two officers, and Lysle fell in the room he entered from the side door. During the fusillade Marshal Finsterwald of Athens was shot over the heart and in the right arm and Deputy Sheriff Manning received a bullet in his right arm and hip.

The condition of the Athens Marshal is very critical. After being shot he courageously pumped lead at the robbers, never giving up the struggle until he was assured both were dead. Williams and Lysle are both bad men and are leaders of a gang that have been cracking safes, burglarizing banks and defying officers. Both carried big guns and a slingshot. Lysle was shot six times. In his pocket was found the explosive to be used to crack the safe. He also carried an ugly looking knife. The tools were found and are in possession of the authorities.

One of the burglars pals, who served as a sentinel, impersonating a woman, escaped. The bodies of the men shot down in their attempt to perpetrate an atrocious crime have been turned over to an undertaker. Marshal Finsterwald is under the care of three doctors at the Priestley home.

Lysle is about 35 years old and Williams is perhaps 30. Both are sparely built, not weighing over 140 pounds. Their revolvers were emptied in the combat. Each carried two weapons.

Call Same Man Papa—Handsome Mother of Six Children is Accused of Bigamy.

Akron, O., Jan. 30.—Mrs. Ronena E. Gaddell, a handsome woman of 40, was brought from Marietta last evening by Sheriff F. C. Kelley to answer an indictment returned at the last session of the grand jury charging her with bigamy. The specific charge against Mrs. Gaddell is that she married Lewis Ford in Akron in 1894 without the formality of having first obtained a divorce from James Gaddell, of Marietta, to whom she was married two years earlier. It is alleged, however, that Mrs. Gaddell had a husband living at the time she married Gaddell, one James Perdue of Akron, and that she still has four other husbands in different parts of Ohio, Kentucky and Pennsylvania.

The woman was indicted here under the aliases Perdue, Merrill, Ford and Smith, but the name of the sixth alleged husband is not known.

Mrs. Gaddell's first matrimonial venture is said to have been with the man Merrill at South Marietta, about 1883, and her second was not until about 1889. She is the mother of six children, and so far as Deputy Sheriff Ralph Hamlin, who has been working on the case, can ascertain, on two of them have the same father. Mrs. Gaddell is also under indictment on a criminal charge in Marietta. She takes her arrest coolly and told Sheriff Kelley that she has obtained a divorce from every man she had married and expected to prove it. The records, it is said, do not bear out her assertion. Judge Kohler fixed her bond at $500.

LONG

WOULD LIKE TO SEE HIS TWO WIVES MEET.

NEWARK MAN TAKEN EAST FOR TRIAL FOR BIGAMY.

"EDDIE, WHY DID YOU DO IT?"

Cried the Newark Wife as She Saw Her Husband Behind the Bars at Mansfield.

Mansfield, O., Jan. 30.—William Edward Long, the young man who was arrested at Newark on the charge of bigamy and brought back to this city, was taken to Freedom, Pa., yesterday by Chief Weil to answer for his doings. Long practically confessed his guilt, as stated heretofore, but ascribed his doing to "spells" the result of an injury when a boy.

Young Long has been holding regular receptions for wife No. 1 while he has been in jail here. On such occasions wife No. 1 would shed tears in large quantities over the wayward man. After each interview Long would put his hands in his pockets and pace up and down the corridor of the jail, whistling and apparently in high good humor with himself. He has not exhibited much anxiety about anything since he has been in jail, except to get plenty of matches with which to smoke.

On one occasion Mrs. Long created something of a sensation by howling at the top of her voice to Eddie: "Oh, what did you do it for, anyhow?" Long was not greatly disturbed after this outburst. After the woman took her departure on one occasion an officer suggested to Long that the Pennsylvania woman was by far the better looking one. Then the officers wanted to know what was the matter with wife No. 2 and why he deserted her and Long replied: "Oh, she is grouchy."

Then Long brightened up as though he had an idea and remarked to the officers that he would like to see the two women meet, and predicted that if such a thing ever happened that there would be a funeral and one of the wives would be a dead passenger in the funeral train.

Mrs. Long No. 1 did not call at the city jail Wednesday but arranged to take leave of the prisoner at the union depot. Wife No. 1 may take a notion to go to Pennsylvania and be present at Long's trial, according to the present indications, and that would be exceedingly awkward for the young man's case, to say the least.

By drinking plenty of water, the kidneys are well washed out, and in this manner the rheumatic poisons are removed from the system. SLEETON RAILS LET STREET CAR SLIDE*DOWN HILL THROUGH CROWD OF PEOPLE.*FIVE WERE FATALLY INJURED.

While a Score Were Severely Injured
Brakes Were Tightly Set and Cars Slid.

Pittsburg, Jan. 30.—Two runaway cars on the Monongahela branch of the Pittsburg Railway company caused death and destruction in a suburb of this city. Three persons were killed, two fatally hurt and 20 severely injured. Dead: John McFadden, aged 24; Mary Kinkaid, 19; Robert Trush, 29, conductor. Fatally injured: Charles Wright, motorman; — Alexander, colored.

The accident happened at the foot of the long hill running into Wilmerding from McKeesport. A car without passengers got beyond control of the motorman and dashed down the hill, one and a quarter miles long, at a terrific speed. At the bottom it jumped into the Pennsylvania railroad station, carrying away the side of the depot and tearing up the platform. Charles Wright, the motorman, was so badly hurt that he can not recover. A large crowd gathered about the wreck and 12 minutes later a second runaway car came tearing down the hill and ploughed into the crowd with death-dealing force. On the way down the hill the car struck a carriage containing James Broad and Lizzie Minner, on their way to McKeesport to be married. The carriage was completely wrecked and the driver, Alexander Saunders, was fatally hurt. The young couple escaped with comparatively slight injuries and later were married. The scene at the wreck when the second car was hurled into the crowd was beyond description. A blinding sleet storm prevailed at the time, and it is said the two cars "skated" down the hill with brakes tightly set.

Heavy Losses.

Little Rock, Jan. 30.—The heaviest losses ever sustained in Little Rock from a like cause resulted from the terrible storm of sleet and cold rain which prevailed here for the past three days. The business section of the city is a scene of desolation and business men on every hand, are mourning heavy losses that can not be recovered by insurance. The estimated damage will exceed $400,000, including loss to business. In many instances the loss has not yet attained its limit, and continued damage will occur where the accumulated sleet and snow is not removed from the roofs of buildings. In some parts of the city the telegraph and telephone poles are all down, pulling trees and wires with them, and forming a congealed mass of wreckage. Streetscars were run irregularly all day. The fall of sleet amounted to about five inches.

Destructive Sleet Storm.

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 30.—Owensboro is completely buried in sleet. The damage to business interests is estimated at $75,000. The Cumberland Telephone company and Home Telephone company wires are twisted and broken to pieces, blocking the streets. Their loss is $15,000. The electric plant is shut down and the gas plant is in bad shape. Business of all kinds is practically suspended. Forces of hands are trying to clear the streets and pavements of fallen trees. The telegraph wires were nearly all prostrated.

Damage by Sleet.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 30.—Almost every street here is blocked with fallen trees, telephone poles and tangled wires as the result of the sleet. The mayor ordered all electric currents, except those supplying several streetcar lines which are yet open, cut off for safety. Elevators and several small plants have had to suspend. Telephone companies have suffered seriously. Beautiful trees, for which this city is noted, are falling by hundreds.

Wires Fell.

Louisville, Jan. 30.—The Postal Telegraph-Cable company sustained a serious accident through bad weather. Three poles on the river front carrying the Postal wires, which were covered with sleet, fell, and the wires landed across some trolley wires. In an instant the Postal operating room was full of blue flames, and then was cut off from the world. It is not known yet whether the protective devices saved the switchboard and dynamos.

Accidents Attended a Blaze at Chicago—A Church is Burned at St. Paul, Minn.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—A fire which started on the third floor of a six story building at 84 to 92 Illinois street this morning burned out three in a short time; loss $100,000.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Bravery shown by firemen saved a number of lives at a fire at 160-162 East Superior street. The blaze was in a 6-story brick building owned by the Zero Marx company, sign painters. It was partially destroyed, the damage being $15,000 to the building and $68,000 to the contents. Seven persons were injured. The basement, first and sixth floors were occupied by the Marx Sign company, the second by the Caldwell Novelty company, third by Western Match company, fourth by Superior Cigar company, fifth by Chicago Paper Can company. The fire originated in the basement and spread so rapidly that the people on the upper floors were given but a slender chance for escape. A number of these were rescued by the firemen.

Church Destroyed.

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—The People's church, an independent church with Congregationalist affiliation, of which Rev. Dr. S. G. Smith, the well known sociologist, is pastor, was completely destroyed by fire. The building was large, containing an auditorium with seating capacity of 2,300, kindergarten, industrial school and other branches, besides smaller meeting rooms. Hard work by the firemen was necessary to keep the flames from spreading. The church was built in 1888, and including its large organ, represented an outlay of $105,000, and had no church debt.

Entertaining Admiral Schley.

Louisville, Jan. 30.—In spite of the bad weather more than 2,000 persons visited the board of trade and shook Admiral Schley's tired but still steady and willing right hand. Lunch at the Penderis club followed, and later the admiral was the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the board of trade at the Galt House. The room was flower-laden. The guests sat at five long tables and numbered 290.

Hawaiian Governorship.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Secretary Cortelyou said the statement that any man has been offered the governorship of Hawaii is without foundation. The president has long been considering the Hawaiian situation and is still considering it, but he has reached no conclusion as to whether he will retain the present officials or whom he will appoint if any change is made.

Big Blaze.

Wolcott, Ind., Jan. 30.—Fire, originating in the Old Fellows' hall over Spencer's drug store, wiped out nearly the entire business section of the city, entailing a property loss of more than $120,000, not more than half of which is covered by insurance.

MINERSMEET COAL OPERATORS IN CONFERENCE.*INDIANAPOLIS CONVENTION HAS ADJOURNED.*THE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Declare Against Government by Injunction and Chinese Immigration—The Officers.

Indianapolis, Jan. 30.—The thirteenth annual convention of the United Mine Workers of America adjourned sine die after selecting Indianapolis as the place for holding the convention next year. The delegates to the joint conference to be held with the operators of the country, commencing today, were instructed to vote for Indianapolis for the joint conference next year. The convention before adjournment voted $1,000 for the aid of the widows and orphans of the miners killed in the Iowa disaster, adopted a ringing resolution against government by injunction, and adopted a resolution favoring the re-enactment of the Chinese exclusion act.

A closing feature of the United Mine Workers' convention was the adoption of the amendment to the constitution recommended by the constitution committee, changing the method of electing the national officers to the popular vote of the local unions throughout the country. Heretofore the officials have been voted for in the national convention. It was upon suggestion embodied by President Mitchell in his annual report that the new section was brought to the convention for its action. On motion of Delegate Haskins of Ohio it was decided, instead of the popular, the election of officers should be made by the majority of all the members in good standing in the national, district and local organizations.

Nearly 200 of the big mine owners of the country are here to attend the joint conference. The operators are confident about what course they will take, but say they will vigorously oppose the demands of the miners for an increase of 10 per cent on run-of-mine basis. The Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania operators are very much opposed to the run-of-mine basis, and say the will never agree to it. They say the change to this system would virtually mean an advance of about 15 per cent.

Condition of Steel Corporation.

New York, Jan. 30.—A preliminary report covering the operations of the United States Steel corporation since it came into existence 10 months ago has been made to the stockholders. The report, signed by both Charles M. Schwab and Elbert H. Gary, declares present business and future outlook, view ahead through 1902, to be highly satisfactory. Discussing prices, the report says they could have been advanced, but that it was decided to be better policy to refrain from doing so. The report asserts that this policy as to prices had not only a reassuring effect upon the trade, but contributed to the restoration of confidence in the general business situation. It also says that great progress has been made in the general plan to harmonize the work of the many plants.

Another Naval Battle.

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 30.—The Colombian government fleet, consisting of the steamers Boyaca and Chucuito and the armed launch General Campo, which left here to make an attempt to break the blockade of Agua Dulce, where the revolutionary fleet was last seen, and to communicate with General Castro, the Colombian commander, met the insurgent steamer Padilla at Vega, 30 miles from Panama, and opened fire on her. The revolutionary steamers Darien and Gaitan appeared on the scene soon after the engagement began. The fire of the Chucuito was so well directed that it caused the revolutionary fleet to draw in toward the shore, where the rebel ships were protected by land batteries. The Chucuito and Boyaca then retired, unmolested.

Honored McKinley's Memory.

New York, Jan. 30.—The annual banquet of the New York board of trade and transportation was held Wednesday night in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel. The function this year had a double object in view, first, to do honor to the memory of William McKinley, and secondly, to encourage the closer union of capital and labor. Among the guests were two former members of President McKinley's cabinet—Charles E. Smith, ex-postmaster general, and John W. Griggs, ex-attorney general. Others present included United States Senator Hanna, Colonel Myron F. Herrick and Charles A. Moore, all close personal friends of Mr. McKinley.

RURAL ROUTES

Congressman Cassingham is Assisting in the Work of Securing New Routes for Licking.

While in Washington some time ago postmaster J. M. Ickes of this city, made an effort with the free delivery department to have the rural free delivery routes that have been applied for in Licking county inspected and established, and solicited the assistance of Congressman J. W. Cassingham in furtherance of his efforts. Mr. Cassingham promised to urge the matter with the department. Several days ago Mr. Ickes received the following letter from Mr. Cassingham:

"Having made some other petitions special" before being advised of your wishes, it will be necessary to have them inspected first. Mr. Kepler, the inspector, told me that he would remain in our district until the department called him away. Mr. McConnell, of the department, promised to leave him with us about four weeks. It is necessary for Mr. Kepler to stay longer in order to complete the examinations of the routes given him. I will make an earnest plea to the department to permit him to do so. Trusting what I have done will meet with your approval and with kind regards, I am, Very Truly Yours,

J. W. CASSINGHAM.

The people of Licking county who have petitioned for the new routes will no doubt have them inspected and established during the coming month.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.—Miss Alice Roosevelt will attend the coronation of King Edward VII. She will sail June 5 by the steamer New York, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, whose guest she will be while abroad. This party will occupy the spacious residence in Mayfair, which was occupied by the Reids at the time of the Queen's jubilee ceremonies. Miss Root, daughter of the Secretary of War, was invited to go but was unable to accept.

Miss Roosevelt will be formally presented at the Court of St. James by the American ambassador. Her gown for the occasion will be of white satin, made with the regulation three yards long court train. Never Loses a Servant.

Every one acquainted with a certain practical millionaire living in a cross street not far from the Fifth avenue highlands wonders how he manages never to lose a good servant. He explains his system in a few words: "I pay fair wages, tip my servants when they deserve it and encourage my guests to do the same. If you dine with me this evening and are particularly pleased with your waiter, remind him of the fact. If you do, he will give me the tip of a dollar, no more. Make the tip a quarter, a half, three-quarters, if you please, but never more than a dollar. If you do, he will give me the surplus, and I shall have to return it to you. Tip my butler, my cook, my maids, if you will, but not on the sly. Do it openly, as they are taught to avoid deceit."—New York Press.

Valley Forge.

My impression had been that Valley Forge was a wild glen high among the mountains, where winter frosts and snows held unrelaxing sway for many long, dark months every year. But really its situation is neither lofty nor remote, and the rigors of the cold are not nearly what they would be in our more northerly states. Comparatively little snow falls, and often there is not a week's sleighing the winter through. The valley is only twenty-three miles from Philadelphia, with which it has direct communication by a railroad that skirts along the Schuylkill river.—Clifton Johnson in Woman's Home Companion.

ODD DENTAL OPERATION.

New Use For Hydraulic Passenger Elevators Discovered.

"Wow, wow, wow!" groaned a telegraph messenger, holding his face in his hands while the salt tears coursed down his grimy cheeks as he staggered into the passenger elevator of a downtown building in Philadelphia the other evening.

"What's the matter, kid?" queried the youth at the elevator lever.

"Me tooth! Me tooth! It aches bad!" all de dentess shops is shet up this time o' night!" wailed the messenger.

"Lemme look at yer tooth," said the other.

"Say," he continued, after a brief inspection, "lemme take it out fer ye, will ye?"

"S'pose," replied the messenger. In a jiffy one end of a stout bow string was looped around the aching tooth and the other end tied fast to the sliding door of the elevator. Then the elevator boy moved the lever, the car shot downward, and to the accompaniment of a yelp from the messenger the tooth leaped from his jaw, says the Philadelphia Press. For a moment the lad was angry enough to fight his benefactor, but gratitude finally prevailed, and he went away rejoicing.

When the elevator boy tells the story, he begins by saying, "I performed a dental operation," for all the world as if he lived in Boston instead of Philadelphia.

A TALE OF JERICHO.

The Arrival of an Educated Hog Causes a Little Excitement.

[Copyright, 1901, by C. E. Lewis.] One day in the history of Jericho a man came along with a tent and an educated hog and had set up for business when the town council had him arrested because he had no license. The arrival of an educated hog had stirred the town to its depths, but the arrest of the showman for defying a town ordinance created the most intense excitement. The people were about evenly divided in sentiment, and before coming to a decision in the matter the town council thought best to call a public meeting and secure a general expression of opinion. There was hardly a man in Jericho who was not present at that meeting, and it seemed as if everybody had come primed with facts and figures. Squar Johnson opened the ball. He was ag'in the hog. He had been practicing all day in his barn on a speech and was primed to deliver a forceful argument. Ebenezer Smallman, Rufus Taylor and Zebediah Doolittle also had much to say on the question.

The subject was looked upon with such vital interest and so many wanted to be heard that it took three evenings before the last one got through. By that time everything that could be said for or against the hog, educated or uneducated, black or white, had been exhausted. Various persons had even brought hogs' heads, boots and tails into the meeting as object lessons and to assist them in making their points. Just before the meeting was ready to take a vote on the question the president of the town board espied Lish Billings in the hall. Lish was the only man in town who had not spoken on the hog question. He had kept still and whittled a shingle.

"Lish, the meetin' would like to hear from you," said the president.

"I hain't got nuthin' to say," replied Lish.

"But you've got the interests of Jericho at heart?"

"Yes."

"Then let us have your opinion as to whether we should grant a license for this educated hog show?"

"Is that what this meetin' has bin worryin' over for three days past?"

"Then you'd better chop it right off, for the feller an' his hog left town for Syracuse before the first speech was made."

BASKET BALL

Close and Exciting Game Played Last Night—Zanesville-Newark Game
Tomorrow Evening.

The "Infants" of the Y. M. C. A. and the "Shamrocks" of Zanesville played an exciting game of basket ball at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Wednesday night. In spite of the handicap of superior weight, the Infants giving their opponents a number of pounds, individually and collectively, they won 28 to 27 by very fast work on the floor. The teams lined up as follows:
Infants—Lehman and Herman, forwards; Ritter, center; Cripps and Moore, guard. Lynn, substitute.
Referee, J. Schlegel. Umpires, Scott and Shauck.

The Infants will play any team in Central Ohio in their class. Any communication should be addressed to H. H. Shauck, Manager.

The "Wolves" of the association will play a game with Company A's team, of Zanesville, Friday night, January 31, and an exciting game is anticipated.
